Notes

1. Deuteronomy 1:1-46

Forty years after the Hebrews left Egypt, they stood at the edge of the Promised Land to regroup with their leader. Moses reminded them of the times when they had remembered to walk with God and the times they had not. He reminded them of the tragic consequences of not walking with God—forty long years of wandering in the wilderness.

6. Deuteronomy 6:1-25

It was the responsibility of Hebrew parents to teach their children the history of God's provision for them. Teaching their children about God was to be a way of life—when they sat at home and when they walked on the roads. They were to pass along the stories of God and his miraculous deeds to their children and grandchildren. These were reminders that God would certainly provide for them.

OPEN

1. What is the most important thing you have learned from your parents?
2. What do you enjoy most about children?

EXPLORE

3. What did God direct Moses to teach to the Israelites? (6:1)
4. What was a very important reason for the Israelites to know God's laws? (6:2)
5. How are parents to teach their children God's Word? (6:7)
